

To whom it may concern

Faculty of Humanities Nicolas Copernicus University (Toruń, Poland) on 17th-19th September 2014 organizes international conference of European Association for the Study of Science and Technology (EASST) titled 'Situating Solidarities: social challenges for science and technology studies'.

We would like to pass the information about this conference, with the details of its merits, calls for tracks, papers and other dead-lines which can be found at www.easst.umk.pl Please feel free to forward this message wherever You feel it may work and please do not hesitate to put the link to the conference on the websites of Your institutions, facebook paths etc.

Dates and deadlines

January 8: Proposal for convenors and thematic tracks deadline

Early February 2014: Communication to the convenors of acceptance of tracks

Mid-February 2014: Call for submission of abstracts with the final track list included

March 28: Deadline for abstracts submission

May 16: Communication of acceptance/rejection of abstracts to authors and opening of online registrations

We will be more than happy to answer all Your questions,

EASST Toruń 2014 Team

eeasst2014@umk.pl

www.easst.umk.pl